Pwyntiau i'w cofio:

1. Because passive sentences are in the form, 'A boy got his striking', the mutations depend on the subject of the passive sentence, e.g.

Ca(e)th bachgen ei dar	(TM)	(singular masculine noun)
Ca(e)th merch ei thar	(TLI)	(singular feminine noun)
Ca(e)th plant eu taro	(dim treigladd)	(plural noun)
2. The literary form of 'caeth', 'cafodd', is often heard in news bulletins. This is because such bulletins are read aloud.
